

What is the allowed minimum distance between organic and non-organic, bulk produce when no physical barrier is provided?

There are no specified minimum distances required between organic and nonorganic bulk produce in the NOP regulations. However, there must be sufficient measures taken (packaging, distance, physical barriers) to prevent commingling and contamination between organic and conventional produce.

e-CFR